<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Least Accessible</th>
<th>Somewhat Accessible</th>
<th>Accessible</th>
<th>Most Accessible</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>★</td>
<td>★★</td>
<td>★★★</td>
<td>★★★★</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Financial Aid

- No online financial aid statements or web pages for undocumented students are available.
- Institutional scholarship resources are explicitly inaccessible for undocumented students (i.e. Social Security Number or FAFSA completion required)
- No financial aid point person published on website.

- Published statements or web page(s) on financial aid for undocumented students are unclear or vague, if they exist.
- Institutional scholarships are open to undocumented students.
- May provide limited links to external financial resources but does not provide links to institutional financial resources.
- No financial aid point person published on website.

- Has published statements or web page(s) on financial aid for undocumented students that are clear and explicit.
- Institutional scholarships are open to undocumented students and include alternative application options, if necessary.
- Has published links to external financial aid resources but little to no links to own financial resources.
- Financial aid point person published on the website.

- Has published financial aid website page(s) for undocumented students that are clear and explicit.
- Institutional scholarships are available to undocumented students with and without DACA.
- Has clear instructions and/or separate application for undocumented students to apply for institutional aid.
- Has published links to external financial aid resources and provides own financial resources.
- Financial aid point person published on the website.